

Trade and Security Symposium II: Security, Commerce and Foreign Direct Investment in Canada
Toronto, Ontario
October 1, 2019

9:00am-9:30am	Registration and welcoming remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dr. Jean - Sébastien Rioux, Scientific Director, International Policy and Trade, The School of Public Policy• Dr. Erick Duchesne, Professor of Political Science, Université Laval• Kelly Ogle, President, Canadian Global Affairs institute
9:30am-10:00am	Keynote Speaker: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nik Nanos, Chair, Nanos Research
10:00am-11:00am	Panel 1: Setting the Stage on Global Security and Trade: Canada in a Disrupted Global, Rules-Based System The rules-based global trading system is in crisis. Canada is facing protectionist pressure from major trading partners like the United States and China. Further, Canada is confronting unprecedented security challenges in the realm of foreign investment. How can a small, open economy like Canada manage these challenges? This panel will develop options for policymakers to secure Canadian trade and investment relationships. Moderator <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Rob Fonberg, Executive Fellow, The School of Public Policy, University of Calgary Speakers <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dr. Anessa Kimball, Associate Professor of Political Science, Université Laval• Dr. Richard Ouellet, Professor, Faculty of Law, Université Laval• Colin Robertson, Vice President, Canadian Global Affairs Institute and Executive Fellow, The School of Public Policy
11:30am-12:30pm	Panel 2: FDI and National Security Canada's economy relies heavily on foreign investment. In this panel, we will hear from investors in Canada and policy makers to gain insight on Canada's business climate and the policy changes needed to strengthen it. How can Canada address national security concerns while signalling it is open for business? Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Andrew House, Counsel, Government Relations and Political Law, Fasken and Fellow, Canadian Global Affairs Institute• Dan Ciuriak, Director and Principal, Ciuriak Consulting and Senior Fellow, Centre for International Governance Innovation

12:30pm-2:00pm	Networking lunch and keynote speaker Speaker: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Goldy Hyder, President and CEO, Business Council of Canada
2:00pm-3:00pm	Panel 3: Cyber Threats and Responses in Canada Canadian economic activity depends on cyber security. This panel will address cyber threats and related policy considerations, paying particular attention to “Fintech” and foreign investments in sensitive technologies. Moderator <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Jean - Sébastien Rioux, Scientific Director, International Policy and Trade, The School of Public Policy Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Eric Miller, President, Rideau Potomac Strategy Group
3:15pm-4:15pm	Panel 4: Political Risk and Security of Trade In many priority markets, Canadian exporters must cope with political uncertainty. The Canadian government is very involved in assisting exporters reach such markets. What role does the Government of Canada have to protect the interests of Canadian exporters in unsecure markets? This is an all too often neglected topic in the field of export promotion. This panel will provide insight from Canadian exporters who have successfully managed political risks to access foreign markets and policymakers who can provide geopolitical insight into the global economy. Moderator: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Patrice Dallaire, Executive Director, Centre for Interdisciplinary Studies in International Trade and Investment (CISITI) Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Robert Murray, Managing Director, Government Affairs and Public Policy, Dentons • Dr. Erick Duchesne, Professor of Political Science, Université Laval • Alison Nankivell, Vice President, Funds and Global Scaling, BDC Capital

4:30pm-5:30pm	Davos discussion on Research, Development and Security How can Canada leverage its investments in science and innovation to position itself in the global digital economy? What is the role of foreign investors in supporting and commercializing such research, and how is this balanced with security considerations? Moderator: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dr. Lisa Young, Professor, The School of Public Policy, University of Calgary Speaker <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Margaret McCuaig-Johnston, Senior Fellow, Institute for Science, Society and Policy, University of Ottawa and the China Institute, University of Alberta
5:30pm-7:00pm	Wrap-up and networking cocktail