

Jim Dilay is an Executive Fellow at The School of Public Policy and is currently a Senior Energy Resource and Regulatory Consultant. Mr. Dilay has more than forty years with Alberta Energy Resources Conservation Board (ERCB), Alberta Energy Regulator (AER and the Energy Utility Board (EUB) in positions of increasing responsibility including gas, pipelines, field operations, development, drilling, production and environment protection as well as the last 22 years a Board Member with ERCB and the previous three as Executive Manager of Operations. Mr. Dilay's academic achievements include a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Manitoba and post graduate courses from the University of Calgary. He has taught oil and gas regulation at the Haskayne School of Business, University of Calgary for 10 years and holds several professional affiliations including APEGA, Canadian Gas Processors Association, the Petroleum Society of CIM, Environment Committee of APEGA and Alberta Pipeline Industry Steering Committee on Abandonment.