

Bev Dahlby attended St. Peter's College, the University of Saskatchewan, Queen's University and the London School of Economics. Dr. Dahlby has published extensively on tax policy and fiscal federalism.

Bev has served as a policy advisor to the federal and provincial governments. Bev served on Statistics Canada's advisory council from 2005 to 2012. In 2010-11, he was a member of the Expert Panel on Federal Support to Research and Development (Jenkins Panel) and the Ecofiscal Commission from 2014 to 2019. In July 2016, he was appointed Chair of the British Columbia Commission on Tax Competitiveness by the BC Minister of Finance. The Commission's report, Improving British Columbia's Business Tax Competitiveness, was released on November 23, 2016. In May 2019, Bev was appointed by the Government of Alberta to the Blue Ribbon Panel to review the province's finances. The Panel's report was released on September 3, 2019. His international experience includes advisory work on tax reform for the IMF in Malawi, for the Thailand Development Research Institute, and for the World Bank in Brazil and Mexico.