

Master of Public Policy (MPP) students graduate with a comprehensive set of analytical and quantitative skills that enable them to formulate, implement and evaluate policy across the private, public and not-for-profit sector. The MPP program's practical, hands-on approach to policy education means students enter the workforce ready to hit the ground running.

94% of MPP graduates are employed in a policy-related role or are undertaking further education

MPP EMPLOYMENT BY SECTOR

2012 – 2015 GRADUATES: SAMPLE EMPLOYERS AND JOB TITLES

Industry

Community Programs & Governance Analyst, TransCanada
Contract Analyst, TransCanada
Environment Advisor, Suncor Energy
Government Relations and Public Policy Advisor, Enbridge
Market Manager, Fertilizer, Canadian Pacific
Regulatory Affairs Consultant, Toronto Hydro
Senior Advisor, Regulatory & Quality, ATCO Energy
Solutions Senior Analyst, Transfer Pricing, Grant Thornton
Senior Policy Analyst, MEG Energy
Sustainability Analyst, Sobeys

Research

Manager, Extractive Resources Governance Program, SPP
Policy Analyst, Canada West Foundation
Research and Policy Analyst, Alberta WaterSmart
Research Associate, Alberta Health Services
Research Associate, Conference Board of Canada
Research Officer, Edmonton Social Planning Council
Researcher, Canadian Energy Research Institute
Senior Policy Advisor, CDN Energy Pipeline Association

Government

Alberta International Offices Operations Officer, Government of Alberta
Assistant Chief of Staff, Dept. of Finance, Government of Canada
Business Analyst, Sustainable Development, City of Edmonton
Business Strategist, City of Calgary
Director of Closure Liability (Oil & Gas) Section, Alberta Energy Regulator
First Nations Liaison, BC Oil & Gas Commission
Land & Resource Manager, Tr'ondek Hwech'in First Nation
Political/Economic Specialist, U.S. Consulate General Calgary, Dept. of State
Senior Intergovernmental Officer, U.S. State Relations, Government of AB
Water Resources Planner, City of Calgary

Not-for-Profit

Community Engagement Planner, Calgary Board of Education
Coordinator, Research/Policy, Accessible Housing Society
Director, Operations, Tourism Calgary
Energy Commercialization Analyst, Innovate Calgary
Manager, Financial Empowerment, United Way Calgary
Policy Analyst, Canadian Cattlemen's Association
Research Coordinator & Executive Assistant, Mustard Seed
Sr. Manager, Stakeholder Relations/Policy, Institute of Health Economics