

Michelle Sadden is an experienced leader in operations, administration, marketing and business development. With over 25 years experience in both corporate and higher education, she provides strategic advice as part of the executive leadership team at the School of Public Policy. In her role as Director, Business Operations, she is responsible for the operations, administration and human resources, including the internal communications strategy.

Michelle's diverse career has included work with two national law firms, Brookfield Properties, Starbucks Coffee Company, the Calgary Farmers Market and the WorldSkills International Trade Competition. She joined the University of Calgary in January 2017.

Michelle is passionate about creating space where employees can thrive. Her goal in any position is to remove obstacles by streamlining policies and procedures and creating a roadmap for long-term success. She has a servant leadership style and sees employees as the greatest asset of any organization.

Michelle is a certified HR professional and Prosci Change Practitioner.